PROTOCOL

The Working Style of the Overview and Scrutiny Commission (OSC)

This document sets out the roles of Members and Officers and the general principles to be adopted by the OSC overseeing its mode of operation.

Member Leadership

Members of the OSC will take the lead in selecting topics for overview and scrutiny and in the questioning of witnesses. The OSC will expect Cabinet members to take responsibility for answering the OSC's questions about topics which primarily relate to the Council's activities.

A Constructive Atmosphere

Meetings of the OSC will be constructive and not judgmental. The OSC recognises and accepts that effective scrutiny is best achieved through challenging and constructive enquiry. People giving evidence at OSC should be given due respect and not made to feel under attack.

Independence

Members of the OSC will not be subject to whipping arrangements by the party groups.

Respect and Trust

Meetings will be conducted in a spirit of mutual respect and trust.

Consensus

Members of the OSC will work together and, while recognising political allegiances, will attempt to achieve consensus and agreed recommendations. There will be recognition that the OSC has a primary duty to scrutinise on behalf of the community.

Openness and Transparency

The OSC's business will be open and transparent, except where there are sound reasons for protecting confidentiality. The minutes of the OSC's meetings will explain the discussion and debate so that they can be understood by an outside reader.

Impartial and Independent Officer Advice

Officers who advise and support the OSC will give impartial and independent advice, as officers support all members of the Council.

Regular Review

There will be regular reviews of how the overview and scrutiny process is working and a willingness to change if it is not working effectively.

Programming and Planning

It is the responsibility of the OSC to determine its annual work programme and also allocate work to the Policy Development and Review Panels. Before each topic is commenced, the OSC will agree the scope of the exercise, what information they will need initially, and which members, officers and external witnesses they wish to see.

Managing Time

The OSC will aim to conclude the business of each meeting in reasonable time. The order of business will be arranged as far as possible to minimise the demands on the time of witnesses.
