Financial Services Comments

An application for funding was considered by PAG for a contribution of £10,000 for the Thetford Society to assist with the cost of celebrations for the anniversary of Thomas Paine. Revenue funding for this project was approved by PAG on 23rd July.

This application has scored 54 which is above the target of 36 for match funding applications.

If Members approve this request for funding it should be subject to:

- a maximum £10,000 or 10% whichever is the lower
- confirmation of the total cost of the project
- the balance of all other funding being confirmed
- funding being allocated from the revenue 2008/9 match funding reserve

Risk

If the request is approved, the Council's standard offer letter should be issued and include the following additional conditions:

- Breckland's contribution is limited to the provision of funds for the project detailed in the match funding application.
